Coach's Corner

Making friends is cardio for the soul. Friendships help kids navigate stressful situations and build character through laughing, sharing, and growing together. When choosing your friends, make sure they are friends with good character traits and not friends who will bring you down or get you in trouble. Life is better with friends!

GUIDANCE CORNER-

S.H.E. Greatest Pumpkin Contest!

It's that time of year again to choose your favorite book and decorate a pumpkin to resemble a character from the story. Here are the guidelines to follow when making your pumpkin for the contest.

- Participation is completely voluntary and pumpkin characters may be decorated independently or as a family project.
 - Pumpkins may be real (not carved in any way) or artificial.
 - You may use paint, glue, wiggly eyes, beads, sequins, yarn, ribbon, fur, etc.
 - Decorated pumpkins must be submitted to the library by Friday morning on October 18th. If completed early, they may be brought to the library any-time before that.
 - Pumpkins with the most votes will receive prizes in each grade level.
 - Students will vote for their favorite pumpkins during library class with their pre-purchased tickets. Voting will begin on October 21st.
 - Tickets will be sold the week of October 15th. They will be 4 for a $1.00.
 - Be sure to include an entry form with your pumpkin submission. If you have the story book, submit it with your pumpkin and put your name inside of it.
 - Also, please attach your name only to the bottom of your pumpkin in order to keep the voting anonymous. Most importantly, have FUN!
- ~ Ms. Chancey & Mrs. Lewis

Complete the entry form and turn in with your pumpkin.

Spirit Day for Scenic Heights on October 15th.

A portion of sales will be donated to our school. Sounds like a great day for pizza for lunch or dinner.
